KIGALI, May 10 (AFP) - U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs Herman Cohen arrived here Sunday for an official two-day visit to Rwanda, officials announced.

Cohen is due to have talks with President Juvenal Habyarimana, Prime Minister Dismas Nsengiyaremye, and other members of the government, the sources added.

Cohen, who arrived from Uganda, last visited Rwanda in 1987, when he was special advisor for African affairs in the National Security Council, a top secret U.S. government agency which advises the White House.
