Introduction

Cette bibliographie rassemble les publications anglophones et francophones parues en 2013 portant, en tout ou en partie, sur le Rwanda. Tous les genres et les disciplines sont a priori recensés, les témoignages, les thèses de doctorat, les articles, les monographies, les rapports, les études savantes comme les romans et la littérature juvénile.

La classification ne reprend pas exactement celle des bibliographies publiées en 2012 et 2013 (<https://www.univ-paris1.fr/index.php?id=523223>). Mais on retrouve les mêmes chapitres, Mémoires, Politique, Economie, Société, Relations régionales et internationales, Droit, Littérature, Sciences naturelles. On retrouve aussi, mais en moindre nombre, les mêmes catégories, Agriculture, Génocide, Réconciliation, Mémoire, Femmes, Éducation, Linguistique, Ethnologie, Réfugiés, Religion, TPIR, RDC, Nations Unies, et alia.

Même abondance de publications que les années précédentes dans le domaine de la santé auquel est consacré un chapitre pour des raisons de volume de publication et non de classification, la santé publique ressortant de l'économie ou de la sociologie.

1994 et le génocide, les femmes, les relations régionales (RDC), le développement économique, le passage à l'anglais, l'éducation, les gacaca et le droit du viol (TPIR) font aussi l'objet de nombreuses recherches.

Ces écrits sont massivement anglophones, pour les raisons connues: les data bases sont pour plus des trois quarts anglophones; les Francophones ne sont plus nombreux à poursuivre des recherches au Rwanda; le Rwanda lui-même est devenu anglophone tout comme la recherche scientifique en général.

Nous n'indiquons pas les DOI (Digital Object Identifier) des publications électroniques, sauf rares exceptions rendues nécessaires par l'absence de toute autre référence, mais nous indiquons les "article numbers", e. g. S11 ou e1324. Nous ne listons pas les "E-pub ahead of print", les "In Press, Corrected Proof" électroniques ou les rééditions Kindle d'ouvrages publiés avant 2013. Nous listons certains travaux de Maîtrise (MA) non publiés qui pour autant valent ceux publiés par des éditeurs électroniques peu regardants.

Plusieurs bonnes thèses, dont des francophones, plusieurs bons livres dont des mémoires, des études économiques, historiques, sociales, politiques ou juridiques ont été publiés en 2013 sur le Rwanda. La critique s'en fera ailleurs. Le connaisseur, en attendant, reconnaîtra les siens.
